

DRESS CODE

Our dress code was established to promote the students' freedom of movement and the teacher's observation of correct technique. We have differentiated the Ballet levels by color of leotard. The color distinction gives the student a sense of accomplishment as the dancer moves up in levels and graduates to a new color of leotard. Undergarments are never worn beneath dance attire, much like a swimsuit. Skirts and sweaters must be removed before entering class. You can find all these items, and brands online at discountdance.com by using our studio code 102203. We do sell Ballet Leotards and Tights in the Studio Office.
